

Guidance for responding from Areas with Infectious Disease Risk Level 1 or Higher

Have you any fever (37.5 degrees or more) or respiratory symptoms before and after returning or (re) -entry?

If you have no symptoms

If you have symptoms

In the two weeks after returning to Japan, take body temperature twice in the morning and evening. Please be aware of the status of your health, and don't come to University and stay at home.

If any symptoms do not develop within 2 weeks from the day of return

If the Symptoms develop within two weeks of returning to Japan

End of observation

To avoid contact with other people, wear a mask etc., then to contact Returnee and Contact Center and visit to a medical institution