

Entry onto Campus and Office Hours during the Fall Semester
(October 1 to January 27)

We will continue to restrict entry onto campus to avoid the “3Cs” (Closed spaces, Crowded places and Close-contact settings) for the time being. Those who can enter Campus are as follows.

[Those who can enter Campus]

- (1) Those who attend face-to-face classes: Click here for courses offered face-to-face.
- (2) Those who have received permission from the Library, etc. through prior application: Please confirm the details and make prior application with each division.
- (3) Those who use a graduate school laboratory in Building 5 (graduate students): Please get in touch with the Office of the Graduate School.

* Precautions for entry onto Campus

- After confirming your entry permission by touching your student ID card to the card reader in the lobby on the 1st floor of Building #8 (for graduate students, the Office of the Graduate School in Building 5), measure your body temperature and disinfect your hands with alcohol.
- If you have a fever of 37.5°C or higher, you cannot enter campus.
- Be sure to always wear a face mask.
