

CURRICULUM

*Only selected subjects are shown in the table below.

		Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4
Specialized subjects	Core subjects	Global Engagement Global Engagement and Peace (T) Introduction to Global Tourism Introduction to Kyoto Culture Community Engagement Workshop I Introduction to Business Management Introduction to Business Administration Intercultural Communication A & B	Community Engagement Workshop II Global Regional Research A & B Community Engagement T1~6•T8	Community Engagement T7
	Subjects offered at the Tourism Policy Course	New Media Marketing in Tourism Tourism and Community Development	Tourism Administration and Policy Studies New Media Lab	Regional Development Studies MICE Theory Global Tourism Policy Seminar I•II	Global Tourism Policy Seminar III•IV Graduation Thesis/Project A
	Subjects offered at the Tourism Business Course	Kyoto Introduction Methods Introduction to Accounting	Tourism Marketing Airline Business	Global Tourism Business Seminar I•II Service Innovation Theory	Global Tourism Business Seminar I•II Graduation Thesis/Project B
	Common course subjects	The Sociology of Tourism Anthropology of Tourism Tourism Geography Multilingual Tourism Survey and Research Methods for Tourism The History of Kyoto	Inbound Tourism Business Hotel Operation Theory Game Based Tourism Sustainable Tourism	Sports Tourism Tourism Laws and Regulations Practical Studies of Tourism-based Community Building I•II (PBL) Tourism Management Theory
	English language seminar subjects	IELTS & TOEFL Preparation Communication Skills for Fieldwork Research	Communication Skills for Tourism Hospitality English II	English Workshop for Tourism I • II	Destination Studies I • II
	Japanese language seminar subjects (For non-native Japanese speakers)	Japanese I-1 to IV-2 *Native Japanese speakers cannot take this subject.
Foreign language subjects	Advanced English subjects	TOEIC Intensive I • II Intermediate IELTS Workshop	TOEIC Intensive III • IV Advanced TOEIC Workshop II
	Second foreign language subjects	Select one language from among Spanish, French, German, Portuguese, Chinese, Italian, Arabic, Dutch, Korean, and Russian.
	Third foreign language subjects	Select one language from among Malay-Indonesian, Turkish, Hindi, Thai, Vietnamese and Swahili.
Cultural subjects	Regional/cultural field Philosophy / World History A: Focusing on Politics and Economy Social science field Introduction to Political Science / Public Diplomacy / The Japanese Constitution Natural/human sciences field Introduction to Leadership The Essentials of Global Environments Career formation field Interactive Webpublishing (PBL)	Regional/cultural field Contemporary North American Affairs I Pop Culture Social science field International Law / Introductory International Economics / International Security / History of International Politics I•II / Imagine Peace (PBL) / Strategy on Diplomacy I•II Natural/human sciences field Human Rights in Multicultural Societies / Global Leadership / Studies of Multicultural Symbiosis (PBL) / Urban Environments Career formation field Traditional Industries in Japan (PBL) / Non-Profit Organization for Policy Sciences / Local Community Centered Businesses / Study of Entrepreneurship / Volunteer and Welfare Policy	Regional/cultural field Kyoto Studies Project (PBL)
Japanology Institute subjects	Current Japan and Tradition/Japan Pop Cultures/Japanese Economy/Japanese History/Destination Kyoto/Religions in Japan
Elective subjects	Specialized subjects, foreign language subjects, cultural subjects, Japanology Institute subjects, some of the subjects offered at the Department of Global Tourism (for second- and subsequent-year students), some of the subjects offered at the Faculty of Foreign Studies (for second- and subsequent-year students)				